

Reichmann & Sohn GmbH

100 years of seniority at Reichmann company

The medium-sized family company Reichmann & Sohn from Weissenhorn is honoring five employees for their long-term loyalty to the company at the start of the new year. Together, the anniversaries look back on proud 100 years of employment.

Managing Director Stefan Reichmann was delighted to honor five employees for 10, 20 and even 40 years with the company this year. "It is a great pleasure and honor to thank our longstanding employees for their commitment and loyalty to the company. The basis of our quality, flexibility, competence and ultimately our mutual success is the experience, commitment and passion of our employees. "

Anniversaries Jennifer Brinkmann and Stefan Dartsch have been with the company for 10 years. Jennifer Brinkmann has remained loyal to the company since her apprenticeship as an office clerk and has since taken over the management of internal sales. The trained industrial mechanic Stefan Dartsch works in assembly for the REMA division.

The IT system administrator Werner Krause and the construction manager Ulf Opitz have been employed in important key positions at Reichmann & Sohn GmbH for 20 years and shape the development of the family company. Bernhard Tobisch, who has already worked in assembly for Reichmann & Sohn GmbH for 40 years, is celebrating a special anniversary. Thanks to his outstanding personal commitment and ingenuity, several technical innovations in the ski service area have already been registered for patents.

Reichmann & Sohn GmbH looks back on over 100 years of company history. The medium-sized family company in the 4th generation attaches great importance to partnership and personal interaction. True to the motto "Out of tradition and passion, your partner for the perfect grind", around 80 employees currently work at Reichmann in three independent business areas.
